THE TATTLER 1951 YEAR BOOK

Published by
THE SENIOR CLASS
of
JACKSON HIGH SCHOOL
JACKSON, TENNESSEE

Foreword

The Staff for the '51 edition of "The Tatler" has worked hard to compile materials which will serve as a chronicle of school life for the students of Jackson High.

If, when you turn the leaves of this book, glorious memories of your school days are vividly revived, this aim will have been achieved.

If I could have a ray of sunshine,
and a fresh and fragrant flower,
and a piece of sky to look at,
and a scrape of land on which to rest,
and someone dear to care for,
what else should I want?

If I could see the wonders that God has done for this world,
and hear the divine melody
of the birds, of the wind, of the sea,
of a deep forest, of a lonely tree,
what else should I want?

If I could always find a silent moment,
in the day or in the night,
to raise a thankful praise to God,
or to help a needy soul,
then, could I want something more,
or expect more out of life?

To better the home is a woman's goal
 This, too, Miss Doak has always told
 "The people will waken and listen to hear"
 Of improvements that are made by the women each year.
 Many duties have these girls performed,
 Like sewing, cooking, and caring for the new-born.
 And then that very happy day,
 When a fashion show is on its way.
 "There are things of which I may not speak"
 Because of the many activities they do each week,
 But of all of them, one stands alone,
 And that is,
 To build a better future in each and Every home.

"A feeling of sadness and longing"
 When graduation at last is here
 Especially those in the N. H. S.
 Who worked so hard throughout the year.
 To reach the grade of 88 was their only aim
 So on that graduation night
 They could stand
 With a gold seal diploma in their hand.
 "The day is done, and the darkness"
 "Falls from the wings of night"
 But the useful work which they did
 Will remain with us throughout our life.

To maintain an average equal to the school
 To qualify for membership is their rule.
 They must have a letter in one major sport
 And keep up their standards to good report
 Each year they sponsor a "beauty revue"
 And have an induction ceremony in chapel, too.
 For the pleasure of people from near and far
 Who come to our gym, they run the "Snack Bar."
 Starting a picture collection of all athletic teams,
 These boys are really working hard it seems.

“Listen, my children, and you shall hear”
 What the Junior Red Cross did this past year,
 On the twenty-fifth of December, in years gone by,
 They gave food and gifts to the needy,
 And all a surprise.
 “Meanwhile, my friends, through alley and street”
 They saw that all things were clean and neat.
 To better the city was their only aim,
 And so they helped in the clean-up campaign
 “You know the rest. In the books you have read”
 How the Junior Red Cross is always ahead,
 So here’s to the ones who so loyally work
 To help our city and nation forever alert.

"It was many and many a year ago"
 When the Tri-Hi-Y began
 For there were some girls who thought
 "That all should be happy whenever they can"
 At Christmas time and Thanksgiving, too,
 They were busy seeing that no one was blue
 Loaded with gifts and baskets of food
 They covered the town to see what they could do.
 With all of this work and much more, too,
 The Tri-Hi-Y was working just for you.
 "And so this was the reason that long ago"
 The club was organized for all to know.

“To create, maintain, and extend throughout the school
And community high standards of Christian character.”
This is the purpose of our Hi-Y
And our members really try
To live up to this Christian rule
Throughout the community and school.
Movies, musicals, and many a speech
Presented at our meetings help to teach
All our members better ways to live,
Ways to help others, and how to give
Our goods, ourselves, and our time
To bring cheer to others at any time.

One of the newest clubs of Jackson High
Which all are eager to join
Is the Science Club, which is just getting wings
For it was only organized last spring.
Many aims have these members set before them
But all too many to name
For they are always discovering something new
Which would be a benefit to you,
To increase our knowledge of science
Is always in their plan
For they are always giving their service
To every part of the land.

What is that joyful sound I hear?
 Why, it's the Jackson High band lending cheer
 To the school assemblies and football games.
 And though we can't mention all the names
 Of the members of our wonderful band,
 We'd like to give them a great big hand.
 At the Strawberry Festival for the past four years
 The band took first place, amid many cheers.
 Each year at the Cotton Carnival they file
 Down Memphis streets for ten long miles.
 And rating Superior for two years in the state,
 They represented Tennessee at the Lion's Convention
 in forty-eight.
 To prove that our band wins under most any condition,
 They took fourth place in international competition.
 To Mr. Bonson, the director, much credit is due
 For he made the band what it is and brought it to you.

Kneeling: Joe Sipes, John Drew Hawk, John Hawkings, Dickie Beare, Neil DeLoach.

Do their best and really try
To prepare themselves for an occupation
So they can work after graduation.
They represent many kinds of work
From auto mechanic to hardware clerk.
In regional contest our club competes,
And this year took five first places in the meets.
Affiliated with other clubs in the state,
We are working to make our club first rate.

Tell me not in a mournful number
Members of the D. E. Club take time to slumber.
Four out of ten of our lads and lassies
Are enrolled in the two vocational classes.
Through this we are earning while we learn
To help ourselves and our employers, each in turn.
We are taught the art of distribution
While each student makes his contribution
Toward strengthening relations between community and school
This is our aim and we work by this rule.

To further interest in dramatics
Is the purpose of this organization
And the first year of its existence
Will close with graduation.
They have laid a foundation
For others to follow each year
By sending delegates to literary meets
In places both far and near.

They present a pageant at Christmas time,
And read the devotion each day.
And when there is nothing else to do
They entertain us with a play.
To further dramatics in our school
Is their purpose and their rule.
